Help research family reading in Australia

Win a children's book prize pack!

We're calling on Australian parents and caregivers across the country to take part in new research into family reading habits.

Take the survey now!

Who can take part?

The survey is open to Australian parents and caregivers with children aged 14 and under.

What's involved?

You'll be asked to complete an anonymous online survey about your experiences reading with the children in your household. The survey takes approx. 15 minutes to complete.
